I hope you have had a great beginning of the month. Fall is here and the weather is beginning to show her face. Our first quarter is almost over and Fall Break is close by. With that said, please make sure that you have reached out to your child's teacher and touched base on homework and class work that is due. With that said, thank you for supporting your children and our teachers. If you are finding yourself in need of some social emotional help, please reach out to our staff and teachers for some ideas.

Return to Hybrid, In-person Learning

This Tuesday, October 6th, the TUSD Governing Board reviewed a plan for students to return to a hybrid model of in-person learning. A recording of the meeting can be found online at <http://govboard.tusd1.org/> and scroll to the section Meeting Video. We learned about the new hybrid, in-person return to school proposal; however, the Governing Board has postponed approval of the plan for further discussion on October 27th. As soon as we have specific, detailed information related to the approved hybrid, in-person instructional option, we will share it with our families.

Principal's Vision:

To ensure that all students acquire high levels of academic achievement through sound leadership focused on quality education, equity in a caring environment.

End of the Quarter

This week is the last week of the first quarter, marking the halfway point of the semester. Remember, the only grades that are officially recorded on a student's final transcript are the semester grades. The quarter grade reflects the student's current, cumulative grade up to October 9th, giving you a strong indication of how your student is progressing. Although these grades will not be officially reflected on a student's final transcript, they will be used to determine eligibility for sports/activity participation and will account for, in most cases, almost half of the final grade. We recommend that all parents/guardians check ParentVUE over the Fall break to see how your student has been performing for the first half of the semester. If your student is not making the progress you would like to see, it is important that you hold your student accountable to attending conference period tutoring sessions with their teachers and to attending the after school tutoring that is offered via zoom every Monday/Tuesday/Thursday from 3:15-4:45 p.m. led by highly qualified, certified teachers.

Technology Checkouts

We hope that the technology we have disbursed to students has all been working properly for you. Please feel free to call the office if you are having any issues and we will be happy to troubleshoot with you via the phone or set up an appointment to bring the unit in to be checked if needed.

Please be aware that the district has associated fines with several types of damage which families are responsible for if the unit is broken or missing parts. Fees range from $25-$649 depending on the missing item or type of damage that has been accessed.
